Lisa graduated from the University of Calgary in 2015, receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Dance with distinction, and the Faculty of Arts Silver Medallion in Dance (signifying the highest distinction in scholarship within the Dance Department). Lisa is a certified Junior and Intermediate AcroDance teacher with her Advanced Level of Certification in progress. She is also a fully qualified and certified ADAPT (Associated Dance Arts for Professional Teachers) Teacher of Dance.

Lisa is the Office Manager for the Acrobatique AcroDance Syllabus and holds Acrobatique Master Instructor Status. With Acrobatique, she assists certifying teachers from across the globe build their own safe and progressive AcroDance Programs.

Lisa also spent five seasons working with Calaway Park's Entertainment Department as a performer, leader, and mentor. Her recent performance credits include Gravity Dance Company's "4(N)ONE", Sage Theatre's Ignite! Festival, and En Corps Dance Collective's "Lost Kin-ection."

Lisa loves unlocking the potential within every dancer and seeing them overcome their physical and mental blocks. Acro is the method, but the true gift she hopes to give each student is confidence, resilience, and a healthy, functional body.
